When It Comes to Event Production Safety is Paramount
Outdoor Events Have Unique Safety Concerns

All of involved involved in event production are looking forward to getting back to live entertainment events without the worry of pandemic precautions dominating the safety concerns for these occasions. It's time to review once again the critical safety concerns for outdoor concerts, festivals, fairs or corporate events.

Because of their "temporary" natures and their exposure to weather, they present unique safety issues.

Whether it's a festival, concert, or other outdoor live event production, make sure you address the following.

1. Crowd Safety
2. Food Safety
3. Weather Safety
4. Structural Safety

Client Review:

Many thanks to Mike Black and TSE Entertainment for hooking us up with a great line up for the Matagorda Surf and Turf Festival we had over Spring Break. Our crowd loved the selection of acts that Mike recommended for the festival. We look forward to our next event and working with them again.

Cico Davant, President, Tropical Maniacs of Matagorda
