Texas Task Force on Concert Safety Releases Final Report

In response to the 10 deaths and 300 injuries at the Astroworld Festival in Houston, Texas last November, The Governor's Office created a Concert Safety Task Force to address issues that may not have been addressed adequately in the safety failures at the Astroworld event. A week ago the task force issued its final report. To learn more about the report and learn more about resources available to concert and festival promoters, staff and other participants, read the article for a summary of the findings.

Why Would You Not Want to Save Money Through Routing Gigs?

If you are interested in being part of this effort, click the button and fill out the form. Bands and venues are always looking to get a routing gig along with their anchor performance. Let TSE help make that happen for your concerts.

One of the easiest ways for you to keep performance costs down is by venues having a routing gig for the acts you book. What's not to like about that?

You have nothing to lose!

It just might be a way to get the artists you want at a price you can afford.
