Do You Pick Your Audience or Does Your Audience Pick You?

When it Comes to Concert Production
The Music Genre Will Determine Who Comes

A new CBS/YouGov Survey released in recent days asks people what their favorite music genre is. Rock music was by far the favorite genre of all adult American respondents in the poll. Pop music was second in the survey. If you look at the subgroups polled, you see distinctly different results. Different demographic groups have different favorite music genres. If you are producing or promoting a concert or festival, the music you pick will determine your audience. The other option is to determine your target market, and pick the music they like. Either way, the music genre of your event, will go a long way in determining who is likely to attend.

Take Advantage of What Artist Routing Can Do for Your Bottom Line

Most of us are looking for the best return we can get for the money we spend. If venues work together to develop routings for artists, everyone wins. The venues get the artists at a significant discount over a one off gig and the artist get a mini tour to help pay for all the travel expenses. TSE can help facilitate these routing shows by putting venues together who would like to take advantage of potential routings with other clubs or other entertainment venues. If you are interested in being part of this effort, click the button and fill out the form. It certainly can't hurt, but could be another way to get the artists you want at a price you can afford.
