Weather Planning for Outdoor Concerts or Festivals

You Will Have Weather at Your Next Outdoor Event That's Why You Need a Weather Contingency Plan

Whether it's an outdoor concert, festival or another type of outdoor event, there's no escaping Mother Nature's plan for your event. Planning should include both severe weather events as well as other typical weather conditions at your event site for that particular time of year. Leaving weather to chance is risky and no, a weather insurance policy is not a weather contingency plan.

Artist Routing Can Help Your Bottom Line

Most of us are looking for the best return we can get for the money we spend. If venues work together to develop routings for artists, everyone wins. The venues get the artists at a significant discount over a one-off gig and the artist get a mini tour to help pay for all the travel expenses. TSE can help facilitate these routing shows by putting venues together who would like to take advantage of potential routings with other clubs or other entertainment venues. If you are interested in being part of this effort, click the button and fill out the form. It certainly can't hurt, but could be another way to get the artists you want at a price you can afford.

Client Testimonial

TSE helped us find the perfect musical performer for our private birthday party event. They were very easy to work with and provided everything we needed for the venue. Would use them again. Dallas metroplex area.
